MOSCOW BUSINESS SQUARE, the business platform during the Moscow International Film Festival, brings together leading producers and film distribution companies from all over the world to foster international co-productions.

The MOSCOW BUSINESS SQUARE programme provides the following activities:

- Moscow Co-production Forum (includes up to 24 projects, public pitching, round-tables, presentations, panel discussions)
- Special Focus (varies each year)
- Moscow Film Industry Showcase
- Moscow screenings
- Producer's training program

In 2011, the main focus of the MOSCOW BUSINESS SQUARE was the film industry of post-Soviet states - countries of the trans-Caucasian region, Central Asia, the Baltic, as well as Russia, Belarus, Ukraine and Moldova. In 2010, the focus was on BRIC countries (Brazil, Russia, India, China) and Scandinavia and Baltics.

International partners

EAVE, MEDIA International, Screen International, Baltic Event, Connecting Cottbus, Sofia Meetings, Film Bazaar, Hong Kong – Asian Film Finance Forum, Pusan Promotion Plan, Rio Market, Cannes Producer's Network, among others.

EAVE partnership

In 2010, EAVE organised a "Mini EAVE Moscow" workshop for producers from Russia and CIS countries, the scope of which we hope to extend in 2012.
